

From Plus Towers, with love to Beirut

A message of love and appreciation to Beirut: our city that will always overcome challenges and obstacles.

On this international day of love celebration, we could not find a better way to express our everlasting love to the city that embraces us.

We stand here holding a sign on which we poured our hearts out.

We Love You Beirut!

