

Plus Properties in Verdun

Plus properties, the leading real estate company in Lebanon, recently celebrated the opening of its new branch in Verdun 732.

In an endeavor to allow its clients easier access to its services, Plus Properties selected an ideally buzzing location in Verdun to set up its new offices where the small gathering attended by banker, investors, clients and the media was organized.

The recent improvement in Lebanon’s security situation has positively reflected on the real estate sector,” commented the Chairman of Plus Properties, “The real estate sector has never been and will never be a source of concern in Lebanon. It has stood fast during Lebanon’s 35 years of crises without any setbacks which reinforces our trust in Lebanon, and this sector in particular.”

